

Nurse Review Incorporated students have a first-time pass rate on the US NCLEX-RN exam of above

90%

. However we want every student that attends our review to leave as a US licensed RN. We are so committed to that goal that we offer the following guarantee: If you work hard, follow our guidance, and take the test when we feel you are ready, and then fail the NCLEX exam, we will allow you to attend another full review with no tuition charge. Regular housing charges will apply.
